Transportation Planner/Analyst

Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD)
Taunton, MA

SRPEDD, one of thirteen regional planning agencies (RPAs) across the state, responsible for planning and planning technical assistance on behalf of a growing Southeast MA (4 cities, 23 towns; 2017 population 633,317) is looking for a hard-working planner/analyst to join its busy Transportation Department.

Under the supervision of the Transportation Planning Manager the successful candidate will perform a wide variety of transportation planning, report writing, and related analytical tasks as part of an accomplished regional transportation and transit planning team, in conjunction with the Southeastern Massachusetts Metropolitan Planning Organization (SMMPO), two area transit agencies, and in response to evolving member municipal needs.

They may also be called upon to collaborate with SRPEDD Comprehensive planners on other high visibility regional planning initiatives currently being conducted by the RPA.

Requires an understanding of the principles, practices, and methods of planning, transportation and transit planning, in particular. Strong data collection and analytical skills. And solid communication abilities, both written and verbal.

Among other duties to be performed, conducting transportation studies; working alongside local, state, and federal partners; making presentations at public meetings; coordinating efforts with colleagues, and helping facilitate enhanced planning coordination across the SRPEDD region. Attendance at some night and weekend meetings required.

A degree in Urban Planning, Civil Engineering, or closely related field is required. Familiarity with ESRI ArcGIS, TransCAD, and other relevant software preferred.

Starting Salary:

Position may be filled at a higher or lower level depending upon education and experience; position open until filled. Starting salary range is $45,000 to $65,000, depending upon qualifications. SRPEDD offers full employee benefits including health care, dental care and retirement plan.

Deadline for Applications:
