Chemical Safety & Climate Change Resiliency Training
A training to help your business assess vulnerabilities and prevent severe weather-related chemical accidents.

MARCH 2, 2018
9:00AM – 12:30PM
IBEW LOCAL 223
475 MYLES STANDISH BLVD
Myles Standish Industrial Park
Taunton, MA

AGENDA

8:45 AM – 9:05 AM  Registration

9:15 AM – 9:30 AM  Welcome . . . and a Quick Look at Climate Change  Bill Napolitano  SRPEDD

9:30 AM – 10:05 AM  Overview of hazards posed by severe weather to the usage and storage of hazardous chemicals; OTA resources and online mapping software  Tiffany Skogstrom  Outreach and Policy Coordinator, OTA

10:05 AM – 10:30 AM  Building Community Partnerships: Improving Emergency Preparedness and Response Efficiency  Rick Ferreira, Director, Taunton Emergency Management Agency (TEMA)

10:35 AM – 10:50 AM  Break

11:00 AM – 11:45 AM  Building Chemical Safety and Climate Resiliency Through Prevention and Adaptive Management  Cora Roelofs, ScD., CR Research/Consulting

11:45 AM – 12:00 PM  MA Department of Industrial Accidents: Workplace Safety Training Resources and Grant Opportunities  Kathleen Manson, Director Office of Safety

12:00PM – 12:30PM  Closing Remarks, and thanks to our co-sponsors TEMA, IBEW LOCAL 223, and TDC